ENACTMENTS

RELATING TO THE

Public Schools of Washington.

Principally those now in force, 1863.

The corporation of Washington shall have power and authority to provide for the establishment and superintendence of Public Schools, and to endow the same.—Act of Congress, May 15, 1820.

Impressed with a sense of the inseparable connection between the education of youth and the prevalence of pure morals, with the duty of all communities to place within the reach of the poor as well as the rich the inestimable blessings of knowledge, and with the high necessity of establishing at the seat of the General Government proper seminaries of learning, the City Councils do pass an act to establish and endow a permanent institution for the education of youth in the city of Washington. The superintendence of public schools within the city of Washington shall be placed under the direction of a Board of Trustees chosen from among the residents of the city. The Board shall appoint a Treasurer. They shall have power to receive donations, and to vest and apply the funds placed under their care in such a manner as they may see fit, not inconsistent with the acts of the Council.

Approved December 5, 1804.

By the act of July 27th, 1826, in compliance with the requisitions of the charter, and agreeably to certain resolutions passed by the corporation and approved by the President of the United States, the sum of $40,000 is appropriated, solemnly pledged, and set apart for endowing the Public Schools of Washington. The Mayor is authorized and required to purchase corporation and other safe stocks, bearing an interest of not less than six per centum per annum, to be kept vested continually and forever after, by the said Mayor, for the support of Public Schools.

By the act of February 25, 1833, the Mayor is authorized and required to purchase annually for the school fund, to be set apart forever for the endowment and support of Public Schools in the city of Washington, corporation or other safe stock, bearing an interest of not less than six per cent. per annum, with the entire balance which may remain to the credit of said fund over and above the amount appropriated in each year for the support of Public Schools.

AN ACT LAYING A SCHOOL TAX AND PROVIDING FOR ITS COLLECTION.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be and hereby is imposed and laid for the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, and for each and every year thereafter, a school tax of one dollar upon every free white male citizen of this city of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, which shall be due and payable at the same time, and shall be collected in the same manner as the taxes upon personal property are collected; and the regulations, limitations, and restrictions prescribed by law in relation to the collection of the taxes upon personal property are hereby made applicable to the collection of the school tax imposed by this act: Provided, That the school tax hereby imposed for the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight shall be due and payable immediately after the passage of this act, and the return by the Assessors of the persons subject to the same.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That whenever the Assessors shall make return to the Register of the persons by this act made subject to the school tax, it shall be his duty to place a copy of the said return forthwith in the hands of the Collector of Taxes, who shall proceed to collect the said school tax as soon as the same becomes due and payable; and in default of the payment of said school tax, by any person subject to the same, within ninety days after the same shall have become due and payable, it shall be the duty of the Collector of Taxes to collect the same by distress and sale of the goods and chattels and personal effects of the person chargeable therewith; but no such sale shall be made unless ten days' previous notice thereof be given in some newspaper printed and published in this city.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the proceeds of the school tax imposed by this act be and the same are hereby set apart and pledged for the establishment and support of public schools in this city, and for no other purpose, and it shall be the duty of the Collector of Taxes to keep a separate and distinct account of all money which may be received on account of the said school tax, and he shall deposit the same weekly to the credit of the school fund of this corporation.

Approved May 22, 1848.

An Act for the Protection of the Public Schools.

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to molest or disturb any of the public schools of this city, or any teacher or assistant teacher thereof, while in discharge of his, her, or their duties.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That any person offending against the provisions of the first section of this act, shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than five nor more than ten dollars, to be collected and applied as other fines due this city are collected and applied; and on failure to pay or to give security to pay the said fine, the person so offending shall be confined in the workhouse for a period of not less than thirty nor more than ninety days.

AN ACT IN RELATION TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act, the city of Washington shall comprise four Public School Districts, to be divided as follows, viz: all of the First and Second Wards shall constitute the First School District; all of the Third and Fourth Wards shall constitute the Second School District; all of the Fifth and Sixth Wards shall constitute the Third School District; and the Seventh Ward shall constitute the Fourth School District.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That annually, on or about the first Monday in October, the Mayor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen, a Board of Trustees, consisting of three persons from each School District, who, with the Mayor for the time being as President of said Board, shall have the management of all the Public Schools in the city of Washington; and the absence of any trustee from three successive meetings of the Board, except in case of sickness or necessary temporary absence from the city, shall vacate his seat as a member thereof, and the Secretary of the Board shall thereupon notify the Mayor, who shall fill the vacancy by a new appointment in like manner. The said Board shall continue in office until their successors are appointed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees appointed in accordance with the foregoing section, shall assemble at the City Hall on the first Monday after their appointment, or some early day thereafter, (of which due notice shall be given by the Mayor,) and shall organize themselves.

In case the Mayor shall be absent or be unable to preside at any of the meetings of the said Board, a President pro tempore shall be elected by the members present.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the Mayor shall, at the same time that he annually appoints the Trustees, also appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen, a Secretary, who shall keep a journal of all the proceedings of the Board of Trustees, and perform such other duties as the rules of the Board of Trustees and the nature of the office may require.

The Mayor shall, in like manner, appoint a Treasurer to make the disbursements for the Public Schools, and to keep the accounts and vouchers thereof.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary and the Treasurer to attend the meetings of the Board of Trustees, but they shall have no vote in said Board, and they shall each be allowed a compensation* of two hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly out of the School fund.

* See act of October 20, 1860.

The Treasurer shall give bond and security in the sum of two thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees shall have power to appoint all teachers, assistant teachers, and sub-assistant teachers which may be authorized by law, and the same to change at pleasure; to prescribe the course of studies and the books to be used in the schools, but no book shall be changed unless by a vote of two-thirds of the whole Board, and the books in all the schools in the several districts shall be uniform.

The Board shall also make and execute such By-Laws and Rules and Regulations for the management of the schools as they may deem necessary and proper, a copy of which shall occupy a conspicuous place in each school-room for the government of the teachers and children, and the same to alter, amend, or abrogate at pleasure; and to determine upon, do, and transact all business and matters appertaining to said schools, agreeably to their by-laws and regulations, and subject at all times to the laws of the Corporation.

They shall cause an annual examination of all the Public Schools to be held in or before the month of July, on such day or days as they may from time to time appoint; and shall make a written report to the Board of Aldermen and Board of Common Council annually, on or about the first Monday of September, giving a full account of their proceedings for the past year, the condition of the several schools, the number of pupils of each sex, with the studies pursued; and make whatever suggestions from time to time they may conceive proper for the better accomplishment of the objects of this act, and shall give such information as the two Boards, or either of them, may at at any time call for.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees aforesaid, in addition to the other duties prescribed by this act, shall divide themselves into as many separate sub-boards as there may be school districts, for the exercise of practical supervision over the Public Schools placed under their jurisdiction, severally subject at all times to the control of the Board of Trustees.

The said sub-boards shall meet at least once a month at the respective school-houses, on some regular day to be appointed by themselves, and shall cause a journal to be kept by the principal teacher of the transactions of the schools, the studies pursued, with the names of any and all who may have been admitted, withdrawn, or dismissed from the school, or who may have applied and failed to obtain admission.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That there shall be appointed annually by the Board of Trustees* one male teacher for each of the district schools, who shall be the principal thereof, and who, during his continuance in office, shall have charge (subject to the direction of the sub-boards of trustees respectively) of the school-house and appurtenances thereof, and shall take due care for its preservation; and the said teachers, and such other teachers, assistant teachers, and sub-assistant teachers as may be appointed from time to time, shall strictly conform to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Board of Trustees.

The said teachers of the district schools shall respectively receive as a compensation* for their services a salary not exceeding the rate of nine hundred dollars per annum; the assistant teachers of the district schools an annual salary of five hundred dollars; the teachers of male primary schools an annual salary of five hundred dollars; the principal teachers of primary schools an annual salary of three hundred and fifty dollars; and the assistant teachers of primary schools an annual salary of three hundred dollars; and the sub-assistant teachers hereinafter authorized an annual salary of one hundred dollars, each of which salaries shall be payable monthly.

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent the Board of Trustees from employing teachers at a less rate of compensation.

Provided, also, That such compensation shall be subject to a deduction for any loss of time or absence from duty.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees of the Public Schools be authorized to select the most meritorious and advanced pupil of the female department of each district school, who shall be styled sub-assistant teacher, and shall pursue such studies as the Board may determine, under the direction of the teacher of the female department of said district school; and the said sub-assistant teachers shall each in their respective districts supply any vacancy which may occur in any primary school temporarily whenever they are required to do so by the sub-board of the district to which they are attached.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all white children between the ages of six and seventeen years within the respective school districts aforesaid shall be admitted into the schools, and shall be taught upon the most approved methods of imparting common school instruction:

Provided, That the parents or guardians of such children shall be bona fide residents of the city of Washington; and the Board of Trustees are hereby authorized to cause the necessary books and stationery to be furnished free of charge to all destitute pupils attending any of the public schools of this city.

The male and female pupils shall, as far as practicable, be kept separate during the school hours, and shall have different places assigned them for recreation:

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the children of one district from being received into the school of any other district.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees of the Public Schools shall keep an office in the City Hall, in such room as may be selected by the Mayor, where all the books, papers, and other matters relating to the Public Schools and the proceedings of the said Board of Trustees shall be kept, and where all the meetings of the said Board shall be held.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees shall annually furnish to the Board of Aldermen and Board of Common Council estimates of the amount which may be necessary for the payment of the teachers and assistant teachers, for the purchase of books and stationery, and for all other contingent and necessary expenses of each of said schools; and it shall be the duty of the two boards to make provision by law for the payment of all such salaries and other necessary expenses out of any money to the credit of the school fund, and when that shall be insufficient, out of the general fund; and all such appropriations shall be subject to the orders of the Board of Trustees, from time to time, as the same may be required to be properly disbursed, and for which the receipts shall, in every case, be taken and returned to the Register of the Corporation for settlement.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts hererofore passed relative to the Public Schools, to organize and establish a Board of Trustees of the Public Schools, the salary of the Secretary and Treasurer, and the duties of the Board, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved November 12, 1858.

An Act making Night Schools a permanent portion of the Public School System.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Board of Trustees of Public Schools are hereby authorized and directed to organize on or about the fifteenth of October in each and every year, in such manner and under such regulations as they may think it best to prescribe, one night school in each school district, where the said Board may deem it advisable; said schools to be kept four consecutive months, unless the Board of Trustees shall deem it advisable to discontinue them sooner.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees shall employ a competent teacher for each of said schools, at a compensation not exceeding the rate of fifty dollars per month.* And it shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees, when they make out their annual estimate for the support of the Public Schools, to include the schools hereinbefore mentioned.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, the sum of nine hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated out of the school fund.

Approved October 15, 1860.

AN ACT EXEMPTING THE PUBLIC SCHOOL-HOUSES FROM THE CHARGE OF TAPPING THE MAIN, AND FROM WATER RENT.

AN ACT IMPOSING TAXES FOR THE YEAR 1862.

* * * * * * *

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That in addition to the taxes imposed and levied under the foregoing sections of this act, there shall be imposed and levied an additional tax, in all and every case, of ten cents on every hundred dollars of the assessed value of property as aforesaid, the proceeds of which shall be set apart and used for the support of the Public Schools of this city, and for no other purpose.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That in addition to the taxes imposed and levied under the foregoing sections of this act, there shall be imposed and levied an additional tax, in each and every case, of five cents on every hundred dollars of the assessed value of property as aforesaid, the proceeds of which shall be set apart and applied exclusively to the building of Public School-houses, and for no other purpose whatever.

Approved August 28, 1862.

An Act grading the Public Schools and fixing the Salaries of the Teachers.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Board of Trustees of Public Schools are hereby authorized and directed to classify all the public schools in the city of Washington into four grades, to be designated respectively, as follows: Primary Schools, Secondary Schools, Intermediate Schools, and Grammar Schools; said classification to take effect on and after the first day of September, 1862.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said schools shall be located as follows: In the First School District there shall be one male grammar school, one female grammar school, one male intermediate school, one female intermediate school, five secondary schools, and two primary schools.

In the Second School District there shall be one male grammar school, one female grammar school, one male intermediate school, one female intermediate school, seven secondary schools, and three primary schools.

In the Third School District there shall be one male grammar school, one female grammar school, one male intermediate school, one female intermediate school, ten secondary schools, and four primary schools.

In the Fourth School District there shall be one male grammar school, one female grammar school, one male intermediate school, one female intermediate school, seven secondary schools, and two primary schools.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the preceptors of the male grammar schools shall receive respectively as a compensation for their services, including their services in teaching night schools, established by the act approved on the fifteenth day of October, 1860, a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum.

The preceptresses of the female grammar schools, a salary of five hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

The teachers of the male intermediate schools, a salary of five hundred dollars per annum.

The teachers of the female intermediate schools, a salary of four hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

The teachers of the secondary schools a salary of three hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

The teachers of the primary schools, a salary of three hundred dollars per annum.

Each of which salaries shall be payable monthly.

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent the Board of Trustees from employing teachers at a less rate of compensation.

Provided also, That such compensation shall be subject to a pro rata deduction for any loss of time or absence from duty.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any act or acts, or parts of acts, which may be inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved September 1, 1862.

Joint Resolutions in reference to the Erection of School Buildings.

Be it resolved, &c., That a Committee, consisting of two members from the Board of Aldermen, and two members from the Board of Common Council, (to be appointed by the respective Presidents of said Board,) and four members from the Board of Trustees of Public Schools, one to be selected from each school district, of which Committee the Mayor shall be ex-officio chairman, be constituted and designated "Committee on the Erection of Public School Buildings."

Sec. 2. Resolved, That said Committee be and they hereby are authorized to select and purchase a lot, adopt a plan for a school building, cause said building to be erected, and make and superintend all necessary arrangements for the same.

Sec 3. Resolved, That it is hereby made the duty of said Committee to examine and approve all bills contracted in executing the provisions of the foregoing resolutions; and that said bills, when thus approved, shall be paid by the Mayor, out of the tax of five cents on a hundred dollars, levied for the special purpose of erecting school buildings.

Sec. 4. Resolved, That it is hereby made the duty of said committee to report progress to their respective Boards, from time to time whenever called upon for information.

Approved October 18, 1862.*

Ellis, of the Common Council, and Messrs Walsh, Wilson, Miller, and Ellis, of the Trustees.

Abstract of proceedings of special committee:

The committee was organized by the election of the Mayor as Chairman, and Dr. F. S. Walsh as Secretary. The following sub-committees were appointed:

On the selection of a site, Messrs Walsh, W. M. Ellis, and Wilson.

On the selection of a plan, Messrs. Richards, Plant, and J. B. Ellis.

On available means, Messrs. Utermehle, Miller, and the Mayor.

It was resolved that the available means be appropriated to the purchase of a site and the erection of one school building, and that said building shall be located in the Third School District.

The committee on selection of site recommended the purchase of Square 901, containing about 100,000 square feet, with a front of 209 10-12 feet for $7,000; which was adopted.

The plan for the school building proposed by Mr. Adolph Cluss, of Washington, was adopted, and that gentleman was employed to prepare working plans, &c., and to superintend the construction of the building. This school-house is designed to accommodate 600 pupils, provides a large assembly hall for general exercises, and is estimated to cost $20,000.

may be drawn from the general fund; said money to be expended as provided in the joint resolutions of these Boards, appointing a committee on the erection of public school buildings, and approved October 18, 1862.

By an act approved April 18, 1863, the appropriation of $450, made on the 20th of October, 1860, for medals and premiums, was transferred to the school fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1862.

---

By an act approved May 18, 1863, an appropriation of $100 for contingent expenses connected with the erection of the new school-house in the Third District was made.

---

By an act approved May 29, 1863, an appropriation of $400 was made out of the school fund to purchase medals and premiums for distribution in the schools at the close of the school year ending June, 1863.

---

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH EIGHT ADDITIONAL PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

Be it enacted &c., That the Board of Trustees of the Public Schools be and they are hereby authorized to organize two additional Primary Schools in each School District, as they may be required.

Approved July 20, 1863.

By an act approved July 20, 1863, an appropriation of $300 was made for fitting up the hall for the Board of Trustees in the City Hall.

By an act approved August 10, 1863, an appropriation of $1200 was made for the erection of a schoolhouse in the Fourth District.

---

Approved September 7, 1863.

By-Laws of the Board.

ARTICLE I.

Stated Meetings.

The stated meetings of the Board shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month.

ARTICLE II.

Special Meetings.

At special meetings, the business for which the meeting has been called shall be first disposed of, and no other business shall be transacted unless by consent of a majority of the Board.

ARTICLE III.

Order of Business.

At the hour appointed, the President (or, in case of his absence, the President pro tem.) shall take the chair and direct the roll to be called, and the name of any member afterwards appearing shall also be inserted. A quorum being present, the Board shall proceed to business, and no member shall retire without permission of the Chair. The following shall be the order of business, viz:

1. Reading the Journal.
2. Communications.
3. Monthly reports of teachers.
4. Reports of Standing Committees.
5. Reports of Special Committees.
6. Presentation of bills by the Treasurer.
7. Unfinished business.
8. New business.

ARTICLE IV.

President.

He shall preside at all meetings of the Board; shall decide points of order without debate; appoint committees; and call special meetings of the Board when requested in writing by three or more members, or when in his opinion necessary.

ARTICLE V.

Secretary.

He shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Board; preserve books and papers placed under his care; advertise meetings in two daily newspapers of the city at least one day before the meeting; notify the chairman of every committee of the appointment of the same, and furnish him with a copy of the resolution under which it was appointed; and perform such other duties as may from time to time be required by the Board.

ARTICLE VI.

Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall disburse the Public School funds, and keep correct books, in which shall be entered the expenditures under each appropriation and an abstract of each account, showing the time of its payment and the name of the payee.

All bills must be approved by the Board before payment, in the following manner:

Bills for the salaries of the Treasurer, Secretary, and Teacher of Music, shall be paid at the end of each month.

Bills for the salaries of all teachers, for rent of school-rooms, and for any purpose not exceeding ten dollars, must be approved by one Trustee of the District in which the expenditure is made.

Bills not named above, and not exceeding fifty dollars, must be approved by two Trustees.

All other bills must be presented to and approved by the whole Board.

The Treasurer shall act as the Librarian of the Board, attend to the reception and delivery of the books, and see that all books, pamphlets, reports, etc., are properly numbered and registered.

He shall keep in convenient form for reference a copy of all acts or resolutions relative to the Public Schools passed by the Councils.

He shall keep an account showing the name of every pupil to whom books are lent, the school and the name of the Trustee approving the requisition, together with the cost of the articles.

He shall have charge of all books, stationery, &c., procured by the Committee on Supplies, or the Board, and shall keep a separate account of all articles delivered to the teacher for the use of the schools.

He shall make an annual report to the Board of his receipts and expenditures, showing the amount of the latter for each school, and the aggregate for each district, and shall report to the Board the condition of the school fund whenever required.

ARTICLE VII.

Sub-Boards.

The Sub-Boards shall have a general supervision of the schools and school property in their respective Districts; shall fill vacancies among teachers temporarily, and report their action to the Board at its next meeting; shall supply such wants and order such repairs to the buildings, fences, or school furniture, as may be immediately necessary; shall report to the Board any teachers who may prove to be unworthy or unqualified for their trust; shall suggest minor regulations for the pupils or teachers, not in conflict with the rules and regulations of the Board; shall visit the schools in their Districts at least once a month, and give such aid and co-operation to the teachers by their counsel as may tend to increase their usefulness and efficiency, and promote harmony among them, and between them and the parents of their pupils.

The Sub-Boards shall superintend all work, repairs, and improvements in their respective Districts, unless otherwise ordered by the Board.

The Sub-Boards, may, from time to time, assign the special charge and supervision of certain schools to each member; but all questions of importance shal require the action of the whole Sub-Board, or reference to the general Board.

The Sub-Boards, in their respective Districts, shall give advice to the teachers in any emergency, and shall take cognizance of any difficulty which may have occurred between the teachers and parents or guardians of the pupils, or among the teachers themselves, or with any Trustee, relative to the government or instruction of the schools. An appeal, however, to the whole Board can be made by any parent, guardian, or teacher.

ARTICLE VIII.

Committees.

The following Standing Committees, consisting of one member from each School District, shall be appointed annually by the President, the first named of which shall be Chairman:

1. On Supplies.
2. On Text-books.
3. On Rules and Regulations.
4. On School-houses and School-rooms.
5. On Examination of Candidates for Teachers.
6. On Accounts and Expenses.
7. On Vocal Music.
8. On Congress and the City Councils.

ARTICLE IX.

Duties of the Committee on Supplies.

They shall advertise annually, in at least two daily city papers, for proposals for fuel, books, and stationery, and they shall purchase all supplies necessary for the schools on the most advantageous terms.

They shall make a report annually, or whenever called upon by the Board.

ARTICLE X.

Duties of the Committee on Text Books.

They shall thoroughly examine text books, maps, or school apparatus, proposed to be introduced into the public schools, and shall make a report, in writing, to the Board, setting forth the reasons for or against their introduction, within three months of the reference to them.

They shall require the author or publisher to furnish each member of the Committee with a copy for examination of any book proposed to be introduced.

In the month of May annually, they shall examine the course of studies prescribed for the schools, and shall recommend to the Board, at the monthly meeting in June, such improvements in the course of instruction and such changes in the books as they may deem expedient.

ARTICLE XI.

Duties of the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

They shall take into careful consideration every proposition presented to the Board, to adopt, repeal, or amend any rule or regulation, and shall report, in writing, their reasons for or against the proposed alteration. They shall prepare and superintend the printing of all blank forms and registers required.

ARTICLE XII.

Duties of the Committee on School-houses and School-rooms.

They shall investigate all propositions made to the Board relative to school-buildings and school-rooms, and from time to time make such reports and suggestions as they may consider calculated to improve the condition of the same.

They shall annually inspect all the school buildings and rooms, and report to the Board their condition, especially in regard to ventilation and security from fire and accident, and recommend such improvements as may promote the health and comfort of teachers and scholars.

ARTICLE XIII.

Duties of the Committee on Examination of Candidates for Teachers.

They shall require evidence of the good moral character of all applicants for positions of teacher in the public schools, and ascertain by personal examination their literary qualifications and capacity for the government of schools.

They shall report at the next stated meeting of the Board after each examination, the names and residences of all candidates found qualified, whether for Grammar, Intermediate, Secondary, or Primary Schools, with such other facts as they may deem necessary for the information of the Board.

ARTICLE XIV.

Duties of the Committee on Accounts and Expenses.

They shall report to the Board at the stated meeting in July the annual estimates of appropriations.

They shall make an examination quarterly of the accounts of the Treasurer, and report the amount of the bills paid, and for what purposes, in each District.

They shall have control of all incidental expenses of the Board.

ARTICLE XV.

Duties of the Committee on Vocal Music.

They shall nominate to the Board a suitably qualified person as Teacher of Music; they shall exercise a general supervision over this department of instruction in all the schools, and make an annual report to the Board.

ARTICLE XVI.

Duties of the Committee on Congress and the City Councils.

They shall represent the interests of the Public Schools of Washington, in all cases where legislation by Congress or the City Councils is desired by the Board, relative to the promotion of education or the improvement of the school system in the city of Washington.

ARTICLE XVII.

Reports of Committees.

The Chairman of each Committee shall make all reports to the Board, with the signatures of the members concurring therein.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Resolutions.

No resolution shall be acted on unless presented in writing, over the signature of the member presenting it; and when the question is put, every member present shall vote, unless excused by the Board.

ARTICLE XIX.

Amendments.

No amendment to the By-Laws of the Board, or the Regulations of the Schools, shall be made, unless it be proposed in writing, at a stated meeting, and receive at a subsequent stated meeting the vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Board.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

OF THE

Public Schools.

Admission.

1. All white children between the ages of six and seventeen years, shall be entitled to admission into the schools within the respective School Districts, in accordance with the following rules:

2. Application for admission shall be made to a Trustee of the School District in which the party applying resides; who, on being satisfied that the child is a suitable candidate for admission, shall grant a ticket, addressed to the teacher of such school within his District as he may think proper.

3. All tickets shall be placd on the register by the teacher as soon as received, and as vacancies occur they shall be filled by candidates in the order of their tickets.

4. Should admission in regular order be refused to any applicant, or should a teacher be unable to find the next applicant to fill a vacancy, it shall be the duty of such teacher to report the fact to the Sub-

Board of the District, before the admission of the next in order, and to state on the register, opposite the name, why such applicant was not admitted.

5. At the commencement of each scholastic year the order of admission of pupils shall be as follows:

I. The pupils who were such at the close of the last year.

II. Transfers from other schools.

III. Applications in the order of the presentation of tickets.

6. Transfers from schools of a lower grade to those of a higher, shall only be made during the first weeks of September and January, and only those shall be promoted whose attendance, conduct, and improvement have been satisfactory to the Sub-Board.

7. The number of pupils in any school shall not exceed sixty for each teacher; but this number may be reduced at the discretion of the Board.

8. No pupil shall be received from one Public School into another without a certificate of honorable dismission, or satisfactory reasons for leaving.

9. No pupil shall be transferred from a school in one District into that of another, unless by the written consent of two members of the Sub-Board of the District from which the scholar is transferred.

10. Children shall be admitted into the schools of such grade as they shall, after examination by the Sub-Board or teacher, be found qualified to enter, and no pupil shall be admitted into a Grammar School who is under ten years of age.

11. Examination Necessary for Admission.

I. Is the applicant within the ages of six and seventeen years?

II. Has the applicant been vaccinated or otherwise protected against small-pox.

III. Is the applicant a pupil of any Public School; and if so, why is application made for a change.

IV. Has the applicant been heretofore a pupil of any of the Public Schools; and if so, what was the cause for leaving?

V. Has application been made to any other member of the Board for a ticket of admission or transfer; and if so, why was it not granted?

VI. Is the parent or guardian a bona fide resident of the city of Washington?

Course of Study.

12. The opening exercises in every school shall commence with reading a portion of the Bible (without note or comment) by the teacher, and appropriate singing by the pupils.

13. Worcester's Dictionary shall be used in all the schools.

14. Primary Schools.

Rules Relative to Teachers.

18. Teachers of Grammar Schools must be not less than twenty-one years of age; of Primary, Secondary and Intermediate Schools, not less than eighteen years of age; and Sub-Assistants not less than sixteen years of age.

19. No promotion of a teacher shall be made until an appropriate examination shall have been passed, and a certificate obtained from the Committee on Examination of Teachers.

20. Teachers may be assigned or transferred to such schools as the Board of Trustees may deem best for the public interest.

21. Teachers shall give at least one month's written notice of their intention to resign, to the Sub-Board of their Districts, under forfeiture of the pay due.

22. Teachers are required to be at the school-room at least fifteen minutes before the hour of opening the schools, and when failing to do so, shall report themselves "tardy" on the monthly report, and assign the reasons.

23. No teacher shall be absent from school at any time during the scholastic year without the written permission of at least one member of the Sub-Board, except in cases of sickness or the presence of contagious disease in the family, which shall be forthwith communicated to the Sub-Board, and specified in the monthly report.

24. In each Public School a register shall be carefully kept, in which shall be recorded the name, age, and number of every pupil, the time of admission, and by whose ticket; the name, residence, and occupation of the parent or guardian, and also the names of all applicants for admission.

25. In addition to the register of admissions, each teacher shall keep a daily record of attendance, deportment, and recitations in such form as may be prescribed, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Trustees. A copy or abstract as may be required of this record shall be made out and sent to a member of the Sub-Board within three days from the end of every month.

26. At the close of the school year each teacher shall submit to the Board a condensed abstract of the monthly reports of the school for the year, in such form as may be required by the Board.

27. The Treasurer shall withhold all money due any teacher who has failed to produce his or her Monthly and Annual Reports, and the nomination of any such teacher for re-election shall not be considered.

28. All records and registers when full shall be deposited by the teacher in the library of the Board.

29. An allowance of stationery for Public School purposes, not to exceed $2.50 per annum for each teacher, shall be furnished by the Treasurer upon requisition of the teacher of each school, approved by a member of the Sub-Board.

30. Whenever books are furnished to destitute pupils, the teachers shall charge them in a book kept for the purpose, and shall require them to be returned when the pupils leave the school.

31. Teachers are strictly prohibited from using any other text-books than those designated by the Board of Trustees, and no book shall be used in a school of inferior grade to that for which it is prescribed in the list of text-books.

32. The teachers of all the schools shall assign one or more lessons to be studied by the pupils daily out of school.

33. The teachers shall attend to the physical education and comfort of the pupils under their care. When from the state of the weather or other causes the recesses in the open air shall be impracticable, the children may be exercised within the room, in accordance with the best judgment and ability of the teachers.

34. Teachers are required at all seasons of the year to make the ventilation and temperature of the school-houses an especial object of attention.

35. The windows in the rooms must be opened for the free admission of air at recess, and at no time must the temperature of the rooms be higher than 68 degrees.

36. Reading newspapers, magazines, etc., and conversation for more than five minutes with other teachers or visitors, is forbidden.

37. No teacher shall use tobacco in any form during school hours, nor at any time in or about the school building.

38. Mild and conciliatory discipline is enjoined on all teachers, and the avoidance of corporal punishment, as far as may be, with a due regard to the necessity for obedience on the part of the pupil.

39. It shall be the duty of the teacher to see that the doors of the school-house, and other houses attached thereto, are locked, and the windows shut and fastened every day after the close of the school.

40. Teachers shall prevent (as far as possible) the pupils from gathering on the school premises before the hours for opening the school-rooms, and they shall require the pupils to leave the premises immediately after the close of the school.

41. No pupil shall be allowed to depart before the appointed hour of leaving school, except in case of sickness, or the request of the parents or guardians, or for some pressing emergency, of which the teacher shall judge.

42. Teachers shall not be allowed to send their pupils on errands during school hours, except on urgent school business.

43. No teacher shall be allowed to present any premiums or gifts to any scholar at the public distributions.

44. No subscription or contribution for any purpose whatever shall be introduced into any public school, unless authorized by the Board.

45. No advertisement shall be read to the pupils of any school, or posted upon the walls of any school building, or fences of the same.

46. The teacher of each school shall prepare and place for convenient inspection by the Trustees, a programme of the exercises of each day during the week, specifying the length of time devoted to each study and recitation.

47. Teachers will give as much instruction as is practicable by means of the blackboard; arrange the scholars in accordance with their progress, in not less than three nor more than five classes; prevent sitting too long in one position or without occupation, and frequently vary the school exercises, so as to awaken and fix the attention of the children.

48. The teacher of each school is accountable for the safe-keeping of the furniture and other school property, the order and discipline of the pupils, and the execution of all rules and regulations of the General and Sub-Boards.

49. Sub-assistants shall have charge, under the supervision of the preceptress, of the record books of the Grammar Schools in which they are pupils, shall be employed to give instruction in any school during the temporary absence of the teacher, when required by the Sub-Board, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to them.

50. Teachers are required to make themselves familiar with these Regulations, and especially with the portion that relates to their own duties, and to the instruction and discipline of their respective schools, and to see that these are faithfully observed.

Rules relating to Pupils.

51. Good order and propriety of deportment, not only during school hours, but in coming to and leaving school, and cleanliness in person and attire, are expected from all. Pupils are required to keep all books clean, and the contents of desks neatly arranged; to enter and leave the room in a respectful manner, and without noise; and to quit the neighborhood of the school in a quiet and orderly manner immediately on being dismissed.

52. No pupil shall be allowed to throw pens, paper, or anything whatever, on the floor; to mark, cut, scratch, chalk, or otherwise disfigure or injure, any portion of the school building, or anything connected with it; to use tobacco in any form; to use a knife in school; to play at any game within the school-room; to use any profane or indelicate language; to nickname any person; to throw stones or other missiles; to annoy or maltreat others, or do anything that may disturb the neighborhood of the school.

53. Continued irregularity, frequent absence, tardiness in attendance, immoral conduct, or a neglect on the part of parent or guardian to furnish the necessary school books, unless satisfactorily explained by such parent or guardian, shall be sufficient ground for suspension.

54. Absence for four days in any month, unless caused by sickness or the presence of a contagious disease in the family, (of which the teacher must be informed before the expiration of the fourth day,) subjects the pupil so offending to dismissal from school for the remainder of the school year, by the Sub-Board of the district, to whom every such case shall be reported by the teacher in writing.

55. Parents shall in all cases be notified in writing when the non-attendance of their children has accumulated so that two additional half-days' absence will require suspension.

56. No pupil shall be admitted into school after the opening, without an excuse in writing from the parent or guardian.

57. Pupils of female schools are not allowed to dispose of tickets for concerts, exhibitions, &c.

58. When the example of any pupil is injurious, and in cases where reformation appears hopeless, it shall be the duty of the teacher to report the same in writing to the Sub-Board; and in case of suspension immediate notice of the same shall be given in writing by the teacher to the parent or guardian, stating the cause.

59. But any pupil under this censure who shall express to the teacher regret for his or her folly or indiscretion, as openly and explicitly as the nature of the case may require, and shall give promise of amendment, shall, with the previous consent of said Sub-Board, be reinstated.

60. Certificates of merit shall be given at the close of each month, to all pupils who have received no demerit marks for attendance, deportment, and recitations.

61. Tickets of absence, deficiencies, and disobediences shall be sent, at the close of each month, to the parents or guardians, to be signed by them and returned to the teacher.

62. Pupils whose parents or guardians are in indigent circumstances may obtain the use of books, &c., from the Treasurer, on a written application, in such form as shall be prescribed by the Board, approved by the teacher of the school, and by two members of the Sub-Board; but in all cases such books shall be returned whenever the scholar shall leave the school.

63. If the books are not returned as required, the pupil shall not be allowed to enter any Public School in the city.

64. The pupil's duties to the TEACHER are, obedience, respect, and attention, industry, punctuality and regularity, truth, frankness and honesty; without these there can neither be success in study, nor the formation of that character which it is the object of the school to promote.

65. The pupil's duties to the SCHOOL are, kindness and propriety of deportment and honesty towards his schoolmates, with regularity of attendance, proper conduct on the way, and a due regard for the character of the school.

66. The pupil's duties to the TRUSTEES, are those due to persons who labor gratuitously for their benefit. They are to be treated with respect when met, welcomed to the school when they visit it, and their words of advice or caution attended to as those, next to parents and teachers, of their best and most disinterested friends.

School Hours.

67. The schools shall be opened punctually at 8½ o'clock, a. m., from April 1st to October 1st, and at 9 o'clock from October 1st to April 1st; and closed at 3 o'clock, p. m.

68. During the morning, a recess of fifteen minutes shall be given at 10½ o'clock, and of sixty minutes at 12 m.

69. In the Primary Schools the teacher may allow the pupils in each class a recess of not more than five minutes after each recitation.

70. No change in the school session in inclement weather is allowed. In extraordinary cases, special permission can be obtained from the Sub-Boards.

Vacations.

71. Every Saturday.

72. From the 15th of July of each year until the first Monday in September, on which day the next school year shall commence.

73. The 22d of February.

74. Good Friday and Easter Monday.

75. The Fourth of July.

76. Thanksgiving Day.

77. From the 24th day of December to the 2d of January.

78. No other holidays shall be granted, except on the application of the teacher, and the written consent of two of the Sub-Board of the District.

Night Schools.

79. Night Schools may be opened and continued for four months, from the middle of October, in any District where there is a sufficient attendance.

80. They shall be opened at 7 o'clock p. m., and continue two hours.

81. Teachers of Night Schools shall keep registers and make reports similar to those of the Day Schools.

Examination.

82. An examination of the several schools shall be made before the close of each school year, under the direction of the General Board; and all pupils absenting themselves from such examination, without cause assigned, may be suspended or dismissed by the Sub-Boards.

School-Houses.

83. Inasmuch as the Trustees are responsible for the proper use of the city property entrusted to their care, the school-houses owned or occupied by the Corporation are to be used for no other than Public School purposes, without the consent of two-thirds of the Board.

---

These rules were adopted December 8th, 1863.

PUBLIC SCHOOL FUNDS.

The money known as the School Fund of this city, arises from three sources, viz :

1st. An investment, now accumulated by investment of accrued interest to $50,540, in Corporation six per cent. stock.

2d. A tax of one dollar upon every free white male citizen of the age of 21 years and upwards: the proceeds of which are, by the 3d Section of the Act of May 22, 1848, "set apart and pledged for the establishment of Public Schools in this city, and for no other purpose."

3d. The general assessment of 10 cents on every $100, of all real and personal property, stocks, bonds, &c., in this city, the proceeds of which, in the language of the Annual Tax Act, "shall be set apart and used for the support of the Public Schools of this city, and for no other purpose."

The accrued interest on the invested fund, is transferred quarterly by the Register, to the credit of the school fund.

The per-capita tax, as well as that arising from assessment, is collected by the Collector, and by him from time to time deposited, separating from all other funds and depositing to its credit the portion accruing to the School Fund.

This money is drawn from time to time, by the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, by written requisition, approved by the Mayor, on which the warrant of the Register is drawn.

Report of Committee, Sept 28, 1861.

May 6, 1862.—Committee on TEXT BOOKS recommended the purchase of—

16 copies of Continental Map of North America, $5 25..... $84 00
26 copies of Mitchell's Map of North America, $4 50..... 117 00
8 copies of Map of the World, Mercator's projection, $4 75. 38 00

Adopted June 3, 1862.

Pelton's Outline Maps were also ordered for Primary Schools not supplied.

July 3, 1862.—Messrs. WIGHT, WILSON, RHEES appointed a Committee to examine the books of the Corporation, in order to ascertain what appropriations have been made from time to time for the benefit of the Public Schools.

July 3 and July 17, 1862.—Messrs. WILSON, MILLER, HOLMEAD, WALSH appointed a Committee "to classify schools and fix salaries of teachers."

Reported plan July 31, 1862.

July 17, 1862.—On motion of Mr. STUART, Messrs. RICKETTS, MILLER, CASSELL, WIGHT, appointed a Committee to "prepare estimates, to consider what fuel is needed, attendance, cleaning, furniture, repairs, stoves, &c., and "all other matters and things which will conduce to the health and comfort of the Teachers and Pupils."

July 17, 1862.—Messrs. MORSELL, CASSELL, RHEES, WIGHT appointed a Committee to prepare annual report.

July 17, 1862.—Resolution unanimously adopted, on motion of Mr. MILLER, "requesting the City Councils to increase the rate of taxation for School purposes in the Tax Bill of 1862 from 10 to 15 cents on the $100, the extra 5 cents to be set apart for the erection of School buildings."

Messrs. Miller, Wight, Holmead, and Wilson appointed Special Committee to present this resolution to the Councils.

August 6, 1862.—Resolutions unanimously adopted on motion of Mr. Rhees :

Whereas it is of the utmost importance that the instructors of our youth should be thoroughly imbued with love of country, and should impress upon the minds of those committed to their care a hatred of treason and rebellion, and that there should be no doubt in the community as to the loyalty of any of the teachers of our Public Schools : Therefore,

Resolved, That the following interrogatories be propounded to every teacher now engaged or proposed to be engaged in the Public Schools of Washington :

1st. Do you heartily sustain the Government of the United States in its present efforts to resist and put down the southern rebellion?

2d. Do you believe that the southern states were justified in secession, or that any State has a right to secede?

September 2, 1862.—On motion of Mr. Miller, Warren's Common School Geography was ordered to be used in all the Schools.

October 11, 1862.—On motion of Mr. Wilson, Resolved, "That in receiving a scholarship in Columbian College to be bestowed upon the most meritorious pupil of the Public Schools, this Board fully appreciates the benefits resulting not only to the pupil to whom it is awarded, but to the entire Public School system of this city, and that our most sincere thanks are therefore due and are hereby tendered for the same."

October 11, 1862.—On motion of Mr. Wilson, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas the levying of an additional tax of five cents on the hundred dollars, to be devoted exclusively to the purchase of lots and the erection of suitable school buildings thereon, was a most necessary, wise, and liberal act on the part of the City Councils, and should be made available to the Public Schools at the earliest date practicable ; and whereas the organic act establishing the Public School system makes it the duty of the Board of Trustees "to make whatever suggestions from time to time they may conceive proper for the better accomplishment of the objects" of said act: Therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That, in the opinion of this Board, the entire amount accruing from said tax the present year should be expended in the purchase of one lot and the erection of one school building on the same.

2d. That as there is a greater necessity for said building in the Third School District at the present time than in either of the other Districts, it should be located in said District.

3d. That a suitable plan for a school building can be selected by persons duly authorized so to do from some of the many published works on School Architecture, and thereby the expense of employing an architect be obviated.

4th. That the lot should be selected and purchased and the work on the building commenced without delay, in order that the walls may be constructed and the roof put on before winter sets in.

Resolved, That a Select Committee of four members of this Board, one from each District, be appointed by the President, of which Committee he shall also be a member and Chairman; to whom these resolutions shall be referred, with instructions to take such action in the premises as they may judge most effectual for carrying out the views set forth in these resolutions, and to report progress from time to time to this Board.

Resolved, That His Honor the Mayor be requested to communicate a copy of these resolutions to the City Councils, with such suggestions as he may see fit to make.

Committee to carry out the object of these resolutions, Messrs. WILSON, MILLER, WALSH, and ELLIS.

October 11, 1862.—Messrs. RHEES, RICKETTS, HOLMEAD and WIGHT appointed a committee to prepare "Manual."

October 11, 1862.—On motion of Mr. MILLER, "Resolved, That the subject of a Superintendent of Public Schools of this city be referred to a committee of one member from each District, with instructions to report at the next meeting the projet of a bill for the consideration of the Board, and when approved, for transmission to the City Councils.

November 11, 1862.—Revised Rules and Regulations presented by Mr. RHEES, read, and ordered to be printed, considered at special meeting December 5th, and finally adopted December 9.

January 13, 1863.—On motion of Mr. UTERMEHLE, Resolved, That a committee be appointed to hear charges, receive testimony, and inquire into the loyalty of the several teachers of the Public Schools.

Messrs. UTERMEHLE, DAVIS, HOLMEAD, and WILSON, committee.

February 10, 1863.—On motion of Mr. WILSON, 12 sets, embracing Nos. 2, 3, 4, 9, and 10, of the Boston Primary School Tablets, and 12 sets of the Maps of the two hemispheres, Map of the United States, and Pelton's Outline Maps, ordered.

February 10, 1863.—On motion of Mr. WILSON, the following resolutions were adopted :

"Whereas, Congress has been so liberal as to place the District of Columbia on the same footing with the Congressional Districts of the United States in reference to appointments in the Military and Naval Academies; and,

"Whereas, it is the judgment of this Board that the selection of candidates for those institutions from the Public Schools would in the best manner subserve the ends of justice to the citizens and the interests of the Public Schools, and would at the same time exert a most beneficial influence upon the Public Schools of this city: Therefore,

"Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to take such measures as he may deem proper to procure from his Excellency the President of the United States the appointment to the next vacancy belonging to the District in either of the above-named Academies for the most meritorious pupil of the 'Male Grammar Schools of this city.'"

February 10, 1863.—New forms of blanks adopted, as reported by the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

March 10, 1863.—On motion of Mr. WILSON, Resolved, That "the Secretary of this Board be required to make up an abstract each month of all the monthly reports of the teachers, in such form as shall be prescribed by the Committee on Rules and Regulations, and present the same to the Board at the regular meeting next succeeding the month for which the abstract is made."

The Sub-Boards are to furnish the Secretary with the monthly reports at least three days before the meetings of the Board.

March 10, 1863.—On motion of Mr. MORSELL, it was resolved, "That in addition to the duties imposed upon the Treasurer by the 6th Article of the By-Laws of the Board of Trustees, it shall be his duty to keep an exact account, charging himself with all books, stationery, and other supplies furnished by the Committee on Supplies, immediately upon their delivery to him, at the same time passing his receipts therefor, endorsed on the bills of particulars, which bills must in all cases accompany the articles delivered."

April 14, 1863.—On motion of Mr. WILSON, eight copies of the last unabridged edition of Worcester's Dictionary were ordered for the Grammar Schools.

April 14, 1863.—Messrs. WILSON, MILLER, WALSH, and HOLMEAD appointed Committee of Arrangements for Annual Examination.

May 12, 1863.—On motion of Mr. WILSON, resolution adopted to ask Councils for $400 for purchase of medals and premiums.

May 26, 1863.—On motion of Dr. WALSH, the Mayor was requested to ask the Councils to make an appropriation to furnish a room in the City Hall for the use of the Board of Trustees of Public Schools.

May 26, 1863.—On motion of Mr. MORSELL, Councils were asked to establish eight additional Primary Schools.

May 26, 1863.—The following resolutions were offered by Mr. WILSON, and adopted June 9, 1863:

"Resolved, That it is the judgment of this Board that the plan adopted and inaugurated the last year, of erecting each year a large and substantial school building, capable of accommodating at least 600 pupils, until there shall be one such building in each Ward of the city, is the most economical and advantageous, and in fact the only feasible plan for furnishing suitable school-rooms within a reasonable period of time for the 15,000 school children of this city.

"Resolved, That the inferior accommodations of the schools in the First District demand that the next school building should be located in said district.

"Resolved, That the City Councils be urged to authorize the Committee on the Erection of Public School Buildings constituted by the joint resolutions approved October 18, 1862, or to constitute another similar committee with authority to proceed at once to select and purchase a lot in the First or Second Wards of the city, to adopt a plan for a school building, to cause said building to be erected, and make and superintend all necessary arrangements for the same."

May 26, 1863.—On motion of Mr. ELLIS, it was "Resolved, That the Committee on Accounts and Expenses be and they are hereby instructed to apply to the proper officer of the Government for an equitable rent of the various school-houses now occupied by its employees."

July 21, 1863.—On motion of Mr. UTERMEHLE, thanks were tendered to the reporters, &c., of the Evening Star for reports of the examinations of the schools and proceedings of the Board.

July 21, 1863.—On motion of Mr. MORSELL, the teachers were relieved from the duty of preparing the "Annual Record of Deficiencies."

Rules of the Schools considered; Article XV, and Rules 60 and 62 were amended.

On motion of Mr. MILLER, the proposition of Mr. Henry Barnard to furnish books for a Teachers' Library at a cost of $100, was accepted. It was also ordered that ten copies of twenty-five text books be placed in the library for the use of teachers, and that $10 be expended during the present year for Educational Journals.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Public Schools held November 10, 1863, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, it is the opinion of this Board that the corps of Public School Teachers in this city can be made much more efficient and useful by means of an Association, properly organized, which shall embrace some of the features of a "Normal School," and in which not only the science of teaching shall be discussed, but the art of teaching shall be practically illustrated: Therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That a Select Committee of four members, one from each District, be appointed by the President, whose duty it shall be to organize a Teachers' Institute for the purpose set forth in the foregoing preamble.

2d. That said Committee be authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the government of said Institute, fixing the times of meeting, and requiring the attendance of all teachers, &c.

3d. That said Committee shall also be authorized to employ a suitable person to direct and superintend the exercises, and to give such instructions as may be required by the Committee.

4th. That for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing resolutions the sum of $100 is hereby authorized to be paid, in equal proportions, out of the contingent funds of the four Districts, upon vouchers approved by the Committee.

The Mayor, as President of the Board, appointed the following gentlemen as a Select Committee to carry out the object of the above resolutions, viz: Messrs. J. O. Wilson, M. H. Miller, R. B. Ferguson, and J. B. Ellis.

At the first meeting of the Committee they came to the unanimous conclusion to invite Z. Richards, Esq., to conduct the Institute, and present a plan for the same.

At a subsequent meeting the Committee adopted the following general plan of organization.

1st. That the meetings of the Institute for the Public Lectures shall be held at the Smithsonian Institution, but that the regular Sessions of the Institute be private, and held in the room of the Female Grammar School, Second District.

2d. On the days of the meeting of the Institute all the Public Schools shall be closed at 12 o'clock, m.

3d. That the first public meeting for the Introductory Lecture shall be held at the Smithsonian Institution on Wednesday, the 25th of November, at 2 o'clock, p. m., and that the first regular Session be held, as above indicated, at the Female Grammar School Room, corner of E and Tenth streets, on Friday, December 4, 1863, commencing at 1½ o'clock, and that these Sessions be continued on Friday of every alternate week at the same hour.

Mr. Z. Richards, having accepted the invitation of the Committee, presented the following Plan and Order of Exercises for the Institute, which was adopted by the Committee; and the Committee having reported the same to the Board of Trustees, the action of the Committee was approved.

The following is the Plan and Order of Exercises adopted:

1st. That there be an Opening Lecture by the Conductor at the organization of the Institute.

2d. That the Conductor of the Institute be authorized to employ as Assistants the Preceptors of the Male Grammar Schools whenever assistance may be necessary.

3d. That all the Teachers' names be enrolled at the opening meeting, and a record of their punctuality, attendance, &c., be kept, to be filed with other papers and reports belonging to the Trustees.

4th. That each session of the Institute be opened with singing, under the direction of the Music Teacher; after which there shall be a short lecture by the Conductor, followed by a discussion upon some one of the following topics, or such others as circumstances may require, viz:

School Government;
Punishment—its necessity and modes;
Incentives to Study and Improvement;
Moral Instruction, and Responsibility of Teachers;
Modes of conducting Recitations and Class Exercises;
Methods of securing Attention;
Habits of Order, Punctuality, Cleanliness, &c.;
Reading and Study for Professional Improvement;
Modes of Teaching the Alphabet and First Readings;
Modes of Teaching Spelling and Penmanship;
Object Teaching;
Physical Training;
Mode of teaching the knowledge and use of the English Language, and also familiar lectures upon the methods of teaching the various branches.

5th. That at each Session, after the lecture and discussion, one hour be devoted to some one of the branches of study, taking them up in order, and each branch in detail; in which exercise each Teacher's views will be drawn out, as far as possible, upon the best manner of teaching.

6th. That there shall be a portion of each Session devoted to writing answers to questions, and to answering such questions and inquiries as may have been proposed in writing.

7th. That at each Session there shall be some Class Exercise by the Pupils and Teacher of some School previously selected, beginning with the lowest grade. During and after such exercise the mode of conducting it may be considered and kindly criticised.

8th. That occasional Public Lectures be given by experienced educational men; but that all the Institute Exercises be attended by only Teachers, Trustees, Members of the City Councils, and such persons as may be invited by the Mayor, Trustees, and Conductor of the Institute.

PREMIUM

FOR THE

SCHOOL YEAR ENDING JULY 15, 1864.

1. A gold medal in each Grammar and Intermediate School, and a silver medal in each Secondary and Primary School; punctuality, exemplary conduct, and improvement within the year constituting the basis of this award.

2. Three premiums in each Grammar and Intermediate School for the best written examinations.

3. Six premiums in each school for exemplary conduct and punctuality.

4. Three premiums in each school for attention to study and improvement within the year.

5. One premium in each school for improvement within the year in penmanship.

6. One premium in each school for neatness; person, books, desk, &c., to be considered.

7. One premium in each school for improvement within the year in vocal music.

Only one award shall be made to the same pupil; but in all cases where a pupil shall be entitled, under the foregoing rules, to a second award, it shall be made to the pupil standing next in order in the same class of merit.

The date of its commencement and termination must be written down in each copy-book by the pupil, and all copy-books must be deposited with the teachers, to be preserved for the examination of the Trustees.

The Sub-Board of Trustees, with the advice and assistance of the teachers, will make awards in their respective districts.

The cost of the premiums will be fixed and all other necessary details relating to the same will be arranged by the Board of Trustees in season for distribution.

Teachers are required to keep a record showing the names of all pupils to whom certificates of merit have been issued during the year, and the number issued to each, and at the close of the year to report the same to the Sub-Board.
